

Speech Development Questionnaire

Child's name: _____

The information below will help us get to know your child, as you of course know your child better than anyone.

Please list the language(s) in which your child is being raised:

1. _____ 2. _____ 3. _____

As you answer the questions below, please note the language(s) in which your child can do these things, if there is more than one.

1. Does your child look up when you call her name? Yes___ No___

2. Does he follow simple one step directions, e.g. "Show me your belly button"?*
Yes___ No___

3. Does she follow two step directions, e.g. "Would you go in the kitchen and bring me an apple please?" Yes___ No___

4. Three step directions? e.g. "Would you please go in the kitchen and bring me an apple and mommy an orange?" Yes___ No___

5. Does your child use gestures, such as pointing, to communicate? Yes___ No___
Baby Sign Language? Yes___ No___

6. Does your child repeat new words after he hears them, or when asked to repeat a word? (e.g. "Mmmm, these raviolis are yummy - can you say raviolis?") Yes___ No___

7. Does your child spontaneously use language (check all that apply):

-Single words? Yes___ No___

-Two word phrases? Yes___ No___

-Three word phrases? Yes___ No___

-Sentences? Yes___ No___

8. When asked a question, does your child respond to it, or repeat it? Respond___ Repeat___

If asked a question in one language, does she respond in another language? Yes___ No___

If yes, which languages? _____

9. Does your child fixate on certain topics? Yes___ No___

If yes, what? _____

10. Does your child generally make eye contact with you when conversing? Yes___ No___